CHETEK CHAIN OF LAKES

Enjoy fishing in the famous Indianhead Country on Chetek's Chain of six lakes which have over 100 miles of shoreline. These beautiful lakes have long been known as the finest lakes in Northern Wisconsin. They are long and narrow which makes them safe against high waves when boating. Islands are numerous throughout the lakes.

The local sportsman and conservation commission keep these wonderful lakes stocked plentifully. Chetek lake is approximately two and a half miles long and one mile wide. Prairie Lake is approximately eight and one half miles long and three quarters of a mile wide. Pokegama, Ojaski, Moose Ear, and Ten Mile are each about two miles long and one mile wide.

For years the Chetek Chain has carried the reputation of the finest fishing in the northwest. For family fishing, the bluegills grow extremely large in these waters and furnish the best of sport for either a fly rod or spinning reel. Walleye, Northern Pike, Large & Smallmouth Bass, Jumbo Perch and Crappie abound in the waters of this chain of lakes.
